18 Martini Your Way

Gin or vodka, shaken or stirred with dry vermouth, and served straight up or dirty, with an olive or lemon peel

19 Espresso Martini

Absolut vodka, Kahlua, and salted caramel syrup, shaken with rich single origin espresso

Jugs (Minimum two people)

32 Pimms No.1 Original

This traditional English classic is spiked with mint, orange wedges, and fresh cucumber

35 Frosé of Barosè

Barose Rose wine is muddled with lemongrass, and blended fresh strawberry purée, elderflower syrup, lemon juice, and shaved ice

42 The Barossa Spring

Martell 'VS' cognac and Amaretto are spiked with lemon juice, topped with South Australian red wine, and served over crushed ice, with orange wedges and edible flowers

Seventeen's wine culture revolves around showcasing Australia's rich winemaking heritage. As such, it embraces an all-Australian approach to its wines. That is, with the exception of champagne because "if it isn't French, it isn't champagne!"

Our list includes the bold and the beautiful, those known and loved by name, along with a tantalising selection of boutique wines that are sure to please the palate. Additionally, you'll find a cellar door list filled with a myriad of fine vintages that are acclaimed the world over.
